Imagine What Your Space Could Become

A VISUAL IDEA BOOK FOR
MURALS, WALLPAPER, AND WALL ART

A WALLGALAXY IDEA BOOK

Most blank walls do not need more décor. They need a point of view.

A custom mural or wallpaper can help a space feel calmer, warmer, more personal, more playful, or more memorable without adding clutter. Instead of adding more décor, it gives the space a stronger sense of mood, identity, and intention.

BLANK

CONSIDERED

MEMORABLE

“One wall can change the feeling of an entire space.”

It could become calm.

For rooms where you want to exhale, choose soft color, gentle movement, and mural designs that settle into the space. The wall should support the room, not compete with it.

BEST FOR

*Bedrooms · Nurseries · Reading corners ·
Living rooms · Quiet workspaces*

*Calm does not mean plain.
It means every detail
has room to breathe.*

It could become personal.

A custom mural can begin with something small: a favorite flower, a pet, a place you love, a child's story, or a pattern that feels like you. When the starting point is meaningful, your space feels more personal than ordinary wallpaper ever could.

The moment it begins. ↗

BEST FOR

*Family spaces · Kids' rooms · Bedrooms ·
Creative corners · Personal home projects*

“The most personal spaces begin with a memory.”

It could become playful.

Playful doesn't have to be loud.

A wallpaper or mural can spark imagination and adventure while keeping the space thoughtful, warm, and beautifully designed.

From everyday play to big dreams, the right wallpaper or mural creates a space where creativity comes naturally.

It could become a statement.

A statement wall works best when it has space to breathe.

Pair a bold wallpaper or mural with simple furniture, intentional color, and enough negative space to let the design feel elevated.

*Big impact.
Beautiful balance.
Effortlessly refined.*
